Property owner/agent contact information: Patrick O'Connor: arbitration@poconnor.com

Appraisal District contact information: arbitrationschedule@hcad.org

Each party must exchange any written evidence (i.e. appraisals, reports, photos) etc.) with the other party and the arbitrator by the date set out above prior to the hearing. Oral Testimony to be presented at the hearing does not have to be reduced to writing. Failure to provide written evidence (if any) in advance may result in the denial of admission of the evidence.

If either Party needs to reschedule the hearing due to a scheduling conflict, they must contact the other party and determine if a mutually agreeable date (or dates) can be determined and report the date or dates to the arbitrator. If the parties cannot decide on a mutually agreeable date, please contact the arbitrator, who will consider the reason for the request and make a determination and either reschedule the hearing or deny the continuance request.

Failure to appear at the hearing, will mean that the party will not be able to present evidence.
